MONDAY ADORATION

Guardian Partners are needed for the following times: 10:30 to 11am, 2:30 to 3pm, and 3:30 to 4pm

Each Monday in the chapel, after the 8:30 a.m. morning Mass until 5 p.m., we have the opportunity to adore Our Lord's body, blood, soul and divinity in the presence of the Holy Eucharist. A Guardian helps to ensure that the Holy Eucharist is never left alone by committing to spend thirty minutes or more each Monday with the Holy Eucharist. You share this commitment with a partner so that if something unforeseen occurs in your schedule you can feel confident that Jesus will not be left alone.

..." adoration means saying: "Jesus, I am yours. I will follow you in my life, I never want to lose this friendship, this communion with you". I could also say that adoration is essentially an embrace with Jesus in which I say to him: "I am yours, and I ask you, please stay with me always." (Pope Benedict XVI, Catechetical Meeting with Children 10/15/2005)

From the Heart of Our Director of Adult Faith Formation—I Came In Second

When I was a 7th grader, two class elections were held. One was for class president and the other was for president of the Sodality of Mary. Those of us of a certain age will remember that many parishes fostered the tradition of vesting girls with a miraculous medal on a wide blue ribbon following their First Holy Communion. Since my class was small, it was also comprised of students in Grade 8, as well. When the elections were held, an 8th grader took the prize for both positions. Shortly after, the winner asked to speak to our teacher, a Religious Sister, outside the classroom. When they reentered the classroom, Sister had informed us that our classmate didn't want to be president of the Sodality so the title was given to me, as I had come in second.

It then became my responsibility to schedule all the girls in the school who were members of the Sodality of Mary to one hour increments of Eucharistic Adoration on Good Friday. Beginning on Good Friday morning, I diligently met each group of girls donning their white veils, led them up the stairs to the church, positioned them in their designated pews, and led them back downstairs when their hour was completed. This continued throughout the day until the 3:00 PM Good Friday service was to begin. When I was about to dismiss the last group of girls, our teacher arrived. She asked if I had been present all day and explained that I just needed to set up the schedule and that it wasn't necessary for me to have remained the entire day. I told her I didn't mind and how quickly the time had gone. I arrived fully prepared to spend the day in Jesus' company with my little religious prayer cards, spiritual pamphlets, and rosary beads. (Tattered devotionals that I still treasure after all these years.)

When I entered high school, I became the sacristan and was afforded many more hours of Eucharistic Adoration and time spent alone in the chapel of Saint Maria Goretti High School in South Philadelphia. As my life journey continued, opportunities for Eucharistic Adoration and quiet hidden time before Jesus in the tabernacle always seemed to find me. Those moments of mystery molded me, inspired me, directed me, consoled me, filled me, and left me wanting for more and for nothing at the same time.

All because I came in second. Angela McClellan

Following our time at the basilica, we will visit the Saint John Paul II National Shrine where his first-class relic can be venerated and the self-guided tour of the nine gallery exhibit on his life and legacy can be viewed. CATHOLIC RELIEF SERVICES

In this critical moment, the President is deciding the number of refugees that can be admitted into the United States. The U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops urge you to let the President and Congress know of your strong support for refugees and resettlement. As September 30, 2019 (the end of the fiscal year) approaches, the Trump Administration is required to announce the Presidential Determination (PD) for Fiscal Year (FY) 2020, which determines the number of refugees allowed to be admitted to the United States. The FY2019 PD was set at 30,000 refugees, the all-time-lowest number in the history of resettlement. Meanwhile, there are nearly 26 million refugees worldwide with 1.4 million needing resettlement.

Despite the continued global need, some in the Trump Administration are reportedly calling to "zero out" the program for FY 2020. The U.S. Catholic Bishops said that zeroing out the refugee program "would be contrary to America values." The U.S. Commission on International Religious Freedom registered their "alarm." As Catholics, we affirm the inherent dignity of every person and the ability of refugees to seek security and safety for themselves and family members. For this reason, the U.S. Catholic Bishops urge you to express solidarity with refugees now in this moment of great need. Visit www.crs.org for more information!

PILGRIM'S PRAYER

(Codex Calixtinus - 12th Century)

God, you called your servant Abraham from Ur in Chaldea, watching over him in all his wanderings, and guided the Hebrew people as they crossed the desert. Guard these your children who, for love of your Name, make a pilgrimage to Compostela. Be their companion on the way, their guide at the crossroads, their strength in weariness, their defense in dangers, their shelter on the path, their shade in the heat, their light in darkness, their comfort in discouragement, and the firmness of their intentions: that through your guidance, they may arrive safely at the end of their journey and, enriched with grace and virtue, may they return to their homes and to us filled with salutary and lasting joy. May the blessings of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit remain with them. Amen.

Please continue to pray for Matt and Cindy Shepherdson and Deacon Peter Niche as they walk the 500 miles of the Northern Camino. If the Spirit moves you, please consider a donation to Fr. Chucks Challenge or the parish in their honor.
